How Pedophiles and Electric Car Scandals Are Connected?

When you first heard about both of them, the idea of the most famous politicians, in your country, helping to organize, execute and operate, unspeakable crimes, on a national basis was inconceivable. It sounded "too far out", "beyond logic" and "too wild".

Each time those smiley-faced, affable, perfect hair-do-wearing, glad-handing politicians and technology billionaires picked up a baby and held it up before the press camera's you didn't shudder with revulsion, or question their ulterior motives...until now!

Later you heard rumors. Then you saw whispers on the alternative news. Then you saw articles in more main-stream news. Then there were documentaries on 60 minutes. In both cases, they began with a whimper and rose to a global out-cry.

In the case of the Famous Politician World Pedophile Ring, the details are hard to stomach:

60 MINUTES HAS AIRED THE FOLLOWING HORRIFIC DOCUMENTARY:

How is it possible that these people can live knowing they've destroyed these kids, now adults, lives?

Now, the infuriating thing will be, who sees punishment? I will guess noone. Yet there are people rotting in cells. Welcome to the world they've built. If you are rich, you get a pass. If you're poor. God help you.

It'd take some pretty huge balls and a good political backing for prosecutors to go after these men. They'd also have to drum up a lot of solid evidence before indictment. I'm sure there are people working on it behind the scenes we don't know about but it's hell waiting.

What a ridiculous question. Didn't you already hear about the porn filter that BY PURE COINCIDENCE also bans political sites? Well, in case you didn't know the filter is to protect the kids because child porn and porn is just one word difference. Also, they're spying on you for your protection to find a capture pedophiles and terrorists.

Jesus dude, what more do you want? Actually arrest the pedophiles in their government? That sounds preposterous.

It's because this entire phenomenon is propagated by the psychopathic class of society that has come to be known as "the Illuminati" in popular culture, and these people are deeply involved in occultism. If you are interested in learning about the world view and ideology of these people, William Cooper (the guy who predicted 9/11 three months in advance and was subsequently murdered by the state), perhaps the most important "conspiracy" researcher of all time, did an incredible series about the history of the various secret societies and mystery religions that together form this psychopathic ruling class. If you're more into reading, Cooper's book Behold A Pale Horse is a good place to start getting into this subject.

This cult is a massive, generational, hereditary organization that uses sexual abuse, ritual abuse, and every form of physical and psychological torture, as means of "trauma based mind control" (this is a well researched subject, look it up) to turn the children of the adults involved into psychopaths who will carry on the tradition. These people sit at the top of all branches of society from politics, to academia, media, finance, business, and every other area.

It gets spread around a lot online because online we have the ability to see and share stuff that's a bit harder to control, people can be motivated and mobilized easier, so gotta be sure to get that heavy load of cynicism in there so folks go "yeah, you're probably right, oh well" and return to their microcosm.

I've been looking through the lists of leading members of political parties who stood down at the recent election and there are some household names there. I've been generally looking at senior figures who are at the very least in their fifties or sixties. There's a couple names where I'm thinking "I really hope it isn't you". This is the danger with the amount of speculation this documentary is giving us.

I can see why media companies in Britain might be wary about reporting on this. Even just looking at this shortlist you risk accusing the wrong person. If it's true that one of those people raped this woman, then this is going to blow British politics apart. If any senior Tories were involved, then it will end the Prime Minister's career.

In my own experience where I am (Australia) police don't really care about pedophiles and worry more about weed this may not be the rule but I once reported a guy that was trying to do pedo stuff to me and my friend and police where more worried about why I had given him money (for weed) they didn't even give a fuck about some man trying to lure us into the toilets or touching my friend....

Dudgereport.com even was all over this but still nothing happened. I mean really...what can you do about it? The government owns the law, the police, the judges and has endless amounts of money. If that does not work, they know how to make people disappear by "suicide".

So you have famous politicians raping and murdering young boys on an organized crime basis as part of a high-income perversion club.

Next you have famous politicians raping and American taxpayers on an organized crime basis as part of a high-income perversion club.

The similarities are shocking. Elitist billionaires, who controlled politics, went off and rigged government process, in a private criminal scheme, in order to put their fingers in places they didn't belong. In one case they were rigging the system for sexual madness, in the other they were rigging the system for stock market madness. Many of the same characters are involved. Gawker's Nick Denton worked with, knew and did political hit jobs for, participants in both cases. The same bankers, at HSBC and Goldman Sachs, ran banking conduits for the activities of both groups. The same people knew Pedophile Jeffrey Epstein and other convicted felons... on, and on... Why do these arrogant billionaires try so hard to do the most disgusting things?

Steven Chu, the Secretary of Energy, was placed in office by John Doerr's Kleiner Perkins Cartel in order to effect an organized crime operation to steer taxpayer funds to John Doerr, Elon Musk and a cadre of Silicon Valley VC's.

White House staff Rahm Emanuel, David Axelrod, David Plouffe, Bill Daley and Robert Gibbs, assisted in the scam by redirecting federal policy in order to implement the crimes. All of these staff suddenly quit the White House, when confronted about these suspicions.

A large portion of the crime involved manipulating mining stocks, with help from Goldman Sachs. In particular, Afghan lithium for Tesla and Fisker, and Afghan indium for the notorious FBI-raided Solyndra and Abound. Kleiner had relationships with Russian mobsters, for a portion of the middle-east commodities deals. Steven Chu gave federal money to Russian controlled companies as part of the scam. Goldman has now been caught doing the same kind of mining commodity stock manipulation.

Kleiner and Sachs promoted an extensive set of media releases entitled: "Afghanistan is the Saudi Arabia of Lithium" and "A TRILLION DOLLARS OF LITHIUM in Afghanistan" in order to market their profiteering scam. The scam was intended to provide the Silicon Valley Cartel with trillions of dollars of personal profits and the Reid, Feinstein (Who are shareholders in the stock deals) and Obama political campaigns, with back-door financing.

All competitors, to the Kleiner Perkins Cartel, had "hit-jobs" put on them by Chu, Doerr, Gibbs and Musk. The hit-jobs ranged from character assassination via Gawker Media, Media Matters and Think Progress, to economic attacks by In-Q-Tel, to political attacks via Sidney Blumenthal and New America Foundation. Every Dept. of Energy applicant that competed with Kleiner's holdings was sabotaged by Steven Chu. History has proven that only Cartel companies received the DOE funding, and that all competitors, to Kleiner companies, were targeted by government officials, and Kleiner operatives, and terminated, or black-listed. A number of strange deaths of whistle-blowers are also under investigation.

All of the evidence from leaks, Chinese hacks, eye-witness reports, investigators, emails, HSBC and Welles Fargo leaks, offshore tax records, financial water-fall analysis, forensic accounting, surveillance, phone records, Senate testimony, and a host of other sources, appears to extensively confirm these charges and validate an organized cover-up.

Every single one of the suspects has received financial and career benefits from their crimes, which has now been tracked, and proven, by forensic legal accountants and FOIA disclosures.
