Fired FBI agent Peter Strzok was more than just an innocent agent who simply didn't care for presidential candidate Donald J. Trump, he was clearly involved in a plan to ensure Hillary Clinton's reputation wasn't damaged by the classified emails found on the laptop of disgraced former Congressman and pedophile, Anthony Weiner, who also happened to be married to Hillary Clinton's most trusted aide, Huma Abedin.

Real Clear Investigations – When then-FBI Director James Comey announced he was closing the Hillary Clinton email investigation for a second time just days before the 2016 election, he certified to Congress that his agency had “reviewed all of the communications” discovered on a personal laptop used by Clinton's closest aide, Huma Abedin, and her husband, Anthony Weiner.
