(Natural News) It's been confirmed that President 44 has formally retained legal counsel in response to multiple potential criminal indictments that both he and former CIA Director John Brennan could very soon be facing.

Insiders familiar with what's going on claim that Barack Obama is on the verge of being charged with the following crimes:

- “Material Support of Terrorism” for his involvement with trying to overthrow the current Syrian government.
- Creating, funding, and arming the group known as the Islamic State of Iraq and Syria (ISIS), also sometimes referred to as the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant (ISIL), which facilitated a litany of “war crimes and crimes against humanity including numerous murders (some by public beheading), torture, rape, theft of oil from Iraq and from Syria, laundering of money from sale of stolen oil, destruction of historical antiquities and ... conspiracy to commit such acts with” ... leaders of other foreign nations.

- “Shielding drug trafficking by Hezbollah,” as well as making unlawful payments of ransom money as part of his effort to secure a deal with Iran on nuclear inspections.
- “Bribery” for any money he took in from the Uranium-One conspiracy, which involved selling 20 percent of United States uranium to a Russia-controlled country.

These are just a few of the many crimes that not only Obama but also Brennan and many others may be found guilty of committing following the unsealing of their believed-to-be indictments. Hal Turner discussed this on a recent episode of his “The Hal Turner Radio Show,” which you can access at this link.

Nuclear accidents such as Fukushima (or nuclear war) can expose your body to radioactive iodine-131, a dangerous radioisotope. Pre-loading your system with stable iodine occupies the iodine receptor sites on your organs, causing your body to naturally expel radioactive iodine you may have been exposed to through air, food, water or milk products. This defensive strategy is recommended by nearly all health authorities, worldwide, including the Nuclear Regulatory Commission. Discover more at this link.

Remember all those sealed indictments? They're about to start being unsealed, according to some

On his show "Operation Freedom," Dr. Dave Janda from USAWatchdog.com has been covering what's been going on with Brennan as well, revealing that it's almost time for the first wave of indictments to be brought to light – and that Brennan is likely included in this sweep.

"Everybody who is a freedom fighter is tired of hearing it's going to happen, it's going to happen, it's going to happen, and nothing is happening," says Dr. Janda.

"What I am told and have been told, and it's been consistently told to me, is you are going to start to see movement on the indictments after the primaries are over. The primaries are over on August 7 ... I think there is going to be restoration of the rule of law. That means serving of indictments."

While some say that there are now over 40,000 sealed indictments, Dr. Janda believes that only a small fraction of these are going to be unsealed and implemented, at least initially. Some of these indictments are expected to be high-profile names like Brennan's, which could come as a shock, especially to deranged liberals.

"My understanding is they are not going to dump 1,000 sealed indictments at a shot," adds Dr. Janda.

"It is going to come in sections and in waves ... I think one of the prime players that is going to get dropped in the indictments is John Brennan, former Director of the CIA. I have been told that John Brennan is going to be held accountable for his past actions."

This is believed to have been one of the subjects discussed between Presidents Putin and Trump during their recent meeting in Helsinki. Dr. Janda says that the two, concerned about deep state spying and meddling, actually met secretly on Air Force One to discuss what's about to be revealed.

“This is why there was such a hysterical reaction after the summit,” Dr. Janda says.

“They were whisked off and actually went to Air Force One because they felt that was the most secure environment where no surveillance could be implemented. This is the third meeting that nobody talks about that was held on Air Force One where information was handed over from Trump to Putin and from Putin to Trump about Deep State players and activities that were occurring in their respective countries around the world.”
