

Google to RapGenius and adversaries: "Watch, we have the power to destroy any person, company or candidate that bugs our investors!" Free Speech and Conspiracy Law Violations?

Google to RapGenius and adversaries (ie: Republicans, regulators, Microsoft, etc.): "Watch, we have the power to destroy any person, company or candidate that bugs our investors!" Free Speech and Conspiracy Law Violations?

Remember the Twilight Zone opening? "We control your thoughts..."

For more on Google violations, type "Google" into the SOMO NEWS Search engine window, above.

Google has proven, time and time again, from RapGenius to Rick Santorum to Uri Dowbenko to Dr. Guy Hingston to Bettina Wulff to Johnny I. Henry to the recent Aussie "Mokbel" case to vast numbers of other cases, that they consciously manipulate public information in order to try to control public thought, moods and inclinations, relative to who their investors friends, and enemies, are.

This is a violation of anti-monopoly laws in a number of countries. Many feel that Google has taken over the majority portion of the internet and, thus, must answer to a more overt set of ethics, transparency and law requirements. They say it cannot exist simply as a private thought control tool for certain billionaires. Google's arguments that the defamations and attacks are "accidental results from arbitrary algorithms" has been proven to be 100% false in a number of court cases world-wide, and by a number of leading SEO forensics analytic experts who have now made themselves available to testify in investigations.
