

How Modern Dating Works With The Internet

By Susan Lester

Some of this reality will sound harsh. The new world of dating is not the "Leave It To Beaver" white picket fence Hollywood-romance that some may have been led to believe. You need to know these facts, though. Being aware will keep you emotionally and physically prepared.

You will find that the majority of profiles on big dating sites are fake profiles, Russian bots, scammers or automated response algorithms that the dating site has placed there. Until you meet them in person, you can't believe anything until you see it with your own eyes.

Anybody you meet on the internet should share 50% of the first meeting costs because of the unusually high number of scammers and gold-diggers on the internet. Men do pay for the first date in small country towns where you met at the barn dance but on the internet, it is totally different. Most people dating on the internet have a different date every night and they are "playing the odds". Many of them are just seeking free food and riding a low-self-esteem roller coaster of sexual conquest. There are ALSO wonderful people who are sincerely looking for marriage but the internet provides the most sex and free food so there are people who have embraced that reality too.

All physical interaction requires a verbal "yes". With all of the lawsuits and sexual extortion scams these days, it is essential to document a very clear verbal consent for all sexual activity. There are a large number of people who are seeking to blackmail people with paternity lawsuits or non-consent sex lawsuits in order to get money from them.

Match.com, OKCupid, and the other corporate dating sites, sell and/or have your data leaked, to political parties and marketing companies. You should know that everything you post or text on those sites is read by others and may be used against you. Use fake names, burner email addresses and information that is slightly different than your true information when you use those services. Move all communications to your personal email that you control, as soon as possible, to avoid leaving your private love life data on Match.com servers. Do you really want Match.com's management (Which includes Chelsea Clinton and the investors in big porn sites) reading your romantic emails?

A 'date' is a meeting to see if there is sexual chemistry. Many people are irked by the use of the term "date" but the reality is that dating is sexual compatibility testing.

There is a whole industry in the dating world called: "Honey Traps". If you have been on TV or in the news and if you have business competitors or political enemies, Honey Traps will be hired. These Honey Traps are people who pretend to be looking for love but they are actually sent to conduct industrial spying and political sabotage against you. If you appear to be successful, watch out for Honey Traps.

Big cities like San Francisco, Los Angeles, New York have a huge number of "transaction-relationship" seekers. Because Craigslist and BackPage have had their sex ads shut down, all of the mistresses, hookers, rent boys and gold-diggers have moved to match.com, OKCupid and the corporate dating sites. Because of this, you now either need to 1.) put "NO transactional relationships" in your ad text or 2.) put the 'code words' in your ad if you do want that.

Anybody who uses a 'smartphone', on a date for phone calls or social media, is considered to be hyper-rude, privacy-violating and not aware of data hacking issues. Keep your phone in a wireless RFID blocking bag at the bar, coffee shop or restaurant on your first date. Nobody wants a 'social media zombie' with them on a date.

Never use a webcam for online dating. Once the camera has been used, even once, it notifies hackers around the globe and they will hack into it to watch you taking showers and sleeping. Webcams can be remotely activated by hackers and you can't tell that the camera is even turned on.

You probably don't know if you have bad breath. Get a regular tooth cleaning at your dentist every 6 months and take MintAssure breath tablets (Available on Amazon) 15 minutes before each date.

The bigger-the-dating-site/the more it's owner's abuse your rights. All dating sites read and archive your texts, emails and activities and sell that data to political groups, government agencies and marketing companies. Treat your dating data just like you would your medical records.

Everybody that is on a dating site is dating multiple people at once. Do not be naive. If you want to be committed and monogamous with a person just tell them so out-loud. If you do not both agree to that arrangement VERBALLY, it will never happen. Men and women always assume different things about the status of a relationship. Most dating issues are about what stage each other person thought the dating phase was in. Men and women really, really do have different ways of thinking, different perceptions of things and different time-frames. Ie: Men are territorial and war-like. If a woman tells her men friends about a new date, then those men friends will try to jack up her relationship with the new guy because their subconscious minds want them to defend their turf.

If you have unprotected sex you will most likely have a pregnancy or get an STD. For each new partner you must get a blood and urine test for: HIV/AIDS, Herpes, Chlamydia, Gonorrhea, Syphilis, Mycoplasma Genitalium, Trichomoniasis, Human Papilloma Virus/HPV, Crabs/Pubic Lice, Scabies, Hepatitis/HBV, Chancroid, Bacterial Vaginosis/BV, Nongonococcal Urethritis (NGU), Molluscum Contagiosum, MRSA, and Lymphogranuloma Venereum. Take this list to any Quest Diagnostics Test Center or Public Health Center and ask for the "Full STD Palette Test" or just show them the list and ask for the test that covers those items. At the very least, pick up the off-the-shelf OraQuick test at your local drugstore and take that saliva test. These tests take only a few minutes and provides a lifetime of health security.

Sound rough? It is, but if you follow these simple tips the cream will rise to the top and you will eventually meet a great partner.

Everyone finds what they are looking for within 3 months but you must have endurance. If you have lived a sheltered life, avoided reading the news and only hung out with a handful of middle-of-the-road friends you might be in for a shock when you jump into the real world.

That world is different than the one you see depicted in old TV shows.

Be ready, have an open mind and forget about the Hollywood hype and you will have a great time!

In a recent internet poll about modern dating tips, these are some of the responses:

What's the most subtle red flag you should look for when dating someone? (AskVoat)

Yeah, they should be as a standard. Nobody needs any more anchor babies. Unless we are using them as literal anchors, in which case we should start with the nigglets, lower BMI of crack babies and all will cause less floating.

Brown babies are much better suited to being used as filler for the wall.

lol, are you a woman by chance? I know you're "capn", but that seriously just sounded like something an incredibly dumb whore would say. Narcissism to the extreme. In the fucking car? Get over yourself. If I get an emergency call I'm answering it because guess what, my life is bigger than a date.

If you're a guy, holy shit man, don't put them on such a fucking pedestal. Acting like that won't get you anywhere. They will not respect it. At all. They would laugh to their girlfriends about how you actually kept your phone in the car. 100%.

Don't get me wrong, I'm not promoting texting random friends during a date or any of that nonsense. The idea of keeping my phone in the car though out of what, some deranged notion of respect? That's just silly. That's the sort of shit an addict does. Like hiding a dirty habit or something. Maybe if you're the sort of person that's on their phone 24/7 yeah, sure, but for the rest of us normal people...

Her home.

I've given women a pass on their bathrooms what with the hairdryers, makeup, curlers and moisturizers but if it or her house is grimy or even a little bit slimy you can almost be sure her pussy is kept the same way.

Kids. If they halfies.

Political affiliations or volunteer work. Every woman is somewhat a nightmare for a man. You have to deal with the drama that comes with them to receive all the benefits they do possess but when you add in politics, sometimes religion, you need to hit that door faster than when you came in.

Financial problems. If, when you meet her, she's upside down in her finances she's not going to get any better in the future. Well probably not anyway, I guess there are some exceptions. When a woman has spending problems it almost always results in more spending problems. If you're okay with taking hold of the finances, and you believe she won't cross you(LOL! dumbass) then go for it.

Bad families. Ohhhh god! Bad families are a deal breaker. Overbearing mothers, sisters. Deadbeat fathers who can't seem to get their shit together. Druggie brothers. Cunt sisters. Family members that always need a loan or some kind of help. Steer clear of that shit, it's not worth it.

I'm not going to say that women are smarter than men, in some cases they are but....., the "red flags" you should look for are career or life oriented bitches. Women that know what they want and are ACTIVELY trying to achieve it. Either career or family wise.

Leave the vapid empty fad of the moment starbucks sipping reality tv watching whores alone.

So much this. For example, one of my best friends married a "reformed stripper" last year. He didn't tell me until after the deed was done because he knew I'd have issues with it. She has a 10 year old son who she insists my friend needs to parent....and then gleefully scolds him for "overstepping his bounds" as soon as he does. We're not talking abuse here. Literally all he has to do is tell the kid to settle down and this bitch is publicly chastising my friend. After a while I couldn't bite my tongue anymore and told him how I felt about his treatment. As a result, we don't hang out anymore.

the "red flags" you should look for are career or life oriented bitches. Women that know what they want and are ACTIVELY trying to achieve it. Either career or family wise.

What's wrong with knowing what you want in life? Everything else you said makes sense, just not this. People who have no idea what they want from life will be the type who sleep around and wander aimlessly through life till they're thirty years old and depressed because they have not built a foundation for evolutionarily driven biological success -- having a family.

Here's what I see with career oriented women. They expect that their job title, salary, career etc. will bring them a higher status guy than if they were just a susie-homemaker. In my case anyway, this actually makes them less attractive. They can't cook, clean, or do much of anything outside of their job. At the end of the day someone's going to have to run the household and I don't want it to be me. So I don't really care how much she's making or if she's a VP of whatever, it all boils down to at some point one of us would have to take care of the kids and a house and if it ended up being her, she'd have just spent the first 10-15 years of her adulthood preparing for something else.

[–] TheodoreKent [S] 10 points (+10|-0) 23 hours ago

Legit question.

How do you ask about her past?

I feel like every woman I am going to date in this city is going to have a retarded past, at least if they are close to my own age. Should I just date significantly younger?

permalink parent

[–] CheeseboogersGhost 24 points (+24|-0) 23 hours ago

I ask her what kind of guys she dated before. I like to ask her in front of her friends that way it opens a door. I've waited for a couple of months then ask them right to their faces if they burned the coal. I watch their answer/body language very closely. It shouldn't be taboo to vet your potential life partner, so don't feel bad about it. Being a former nigger lover was always a deal breaker for me personally. Years ago I had met a chic and was out on a date and bumped into an old friend and he said right in front of her: "you do know she was a nigger lover, right?". I left her standing right there.

So, again, my answer is to vet the shit out of them. You have to use your own judgment as to when to do it. You can either do it right off the bat or wait a while. Younger women can be good. My wife is 7 years younger than I am. I'm glad I got married when I did('99). That's all I can say

I have a friend that makes pretty good money working for Google but she is constantly traveling. Every week she is on a flight somewhere. It's her own money and that's fine, but what happens when she needs a house or really needs to invest in something?

It's more about a poorly managed life than the fact that someone else is paying for it. A lot of the women traveling everywhere are paid for by daddy even though they are long past the age when their parents should have stopped paying for them.

If you're a guy - Look to see if she admits to her mistakes, holds herself accountable, and tries to fix or right the mistakes herself.

You've heard the saying that girls don't want a solution, they just want you to listen. Well... they just want you to listen to how they did nothing wrong; how it's not their fault. And after they're done, if you offer a solution, then you didn't listen. Because if you did listen you would know that it's not their fault, they did nothing wrong, and they don't need to change or do anything.

If you're a girl - Find out if he smokes pot. It plummets their testosterone. No matter how attracted you are to them now, eventually they'll become a whiny little brat with a "dad bod" who's not capable of pleasing you sexually.

No, I don't have myself a cuck. I'm a male Canadian who is about to watch his country deteriorate into.... I don't know what it'll become. Legalized pot (the testosterone killer), bommers dying off, EVERY political party has been corrupted and is controlled, immigrants, virtue signallers. And it'll all get worse and worse as the country's testosterone levels fall more and more.

Yes, the quality and quantity of girls I can get is higher, but it isn't worth the cost. Definitely not worth the cost.

Ask her why her last relationships failed. Does she take any responsibility? Or does she pretend to do so while saying something passive aggressive? For example if she says it was her fault because she was 'too nice to her ex' that's actually thinly veiled blame.

I don't know if that qualifies as subtle, but it's an easy question to ask that can reveal major red flags without her (or him) noticing.

edit: Sorry, I know this is not a subtle list.

Great posts.

Some I look out for:

- Fat - They only get fatter
- Fat Kids - Bad parenting
- Loud, annoying or constantly crying kids - almost all single moms. It's a sign of horrible parenting

- Numerous Kids by Different Men
- Kids without the dads around at all
- Ladies 30+ going out with friends on weekends like they are 20 and hanging out at the club or bar
- Ex partiers who want to settle down - They will almost always lie to you about how long they've been clean and/or employed. Catch and release with these.
- Women that start in on you with all of their problems right out the gate - These are worse than the usual parasites, as almost always they want to talk you into giving them money without even having the common goddamn courtesy to give you a blowjob.
- White women that have no pride or sense of their history - I'm not even talking about white history, more like no sense of Irish, German or Slavic pride. This is more common than you think and most single white women, even in the deep South seem totally in love with the idea of destroying their own race.
- Any hair color that is akin to that you'd see on a poisonous frog
- Women that literally say they are good mothers constantly on social media - every single time I've seen this they're completely full of shit
- Any whore that talks about her money - I love the look on their face when I say "no one cares. The only type of guys that would care are guys who can't support themselves. Any self respecting man knows to never, ever be under a woman's thumb financially. Men don't care about your money. Only drug dealers and moochers do." If you deal with these, be nice, make jokes, dump and run. They're done. They're frazzled, angry, vindictive and fucking crazy. They are great lays but hold a grudge a mile wide. When you exit this one, make sure you do it in a way as to convince them it was their idea to leave you.
- ANY bitch who is a widow. NO. This is becoming waaay too common on online dating sites. Unless the guy was 50+ and died of cancer or he was killed in some totally explainable way that was unrelated to her, never, ever trust these women. I don't care if it was a hunting accident, don't. Never trust them.

Any hair color that is akin to that you'd see on a poisonous frog

Unless she is a punk rocker. Have her sing her favorite punk song as a test.

ANY bitch who is a widow.

Ask for phone numbers of the deceased husband's parents. A worthy widow will have them on speed dial, especially if there are kids involved.

I agree that your list isn't the most subtle red flag, it is blatant warning signs.

But thanks for posting. Some people don't yet know the blatant warning signs.

1. Too sexual. If guys try to sleep with me too early I assume they aren't wanting a mature and decent future and are still in the "sleep around" phase. I HATE guys who stick their dick in crazy before taking the time to judge someone.

2. Insane family. My family is nuts and I'm the only normal one to make it out somewhat unruined. While not EVERYONE is like their parents/siblings... It will help you understand them better. I'm a little extra wary if they come from trash.
3. Overweight/chubby/smoke/drink too much. Partners who don't care for their physical health or being the best versions of themselves scare me.

[–] Ban_Circumcision 0 points (+0|-0) 17 hours ago

permalink parent

[–] SOULESS 3 points (+3|-0) 14 hours ago

Don't listen to the other two, you should discuss sexual things prior to marriage at the very least.

I'm open to the possibility of doing light things that aren't sex prior to marriage if the person is a good prospective long term partner. Boyfriends deserve a few privileges as well. I just don't want to give them a reason to sleep with me all they want for years on end like my eldest sister allowed and then find out they aren't interested in marriage. So I'm going to wait to be sure men who are scared of commitments would leave me early on. It would take me a couple months to decide if I was ready for boyfriend privileges with them. I like taking things slow. I really want to be sure the person is worth my time, emotion, and effort first.

When guys are too horny or come on too strong I get turned off from them. The last guy I was seeing was incredibly wealthy person trying to start up a tech business. After three weeks he was sending me messages at night about how horny he was and how he wanted me in sexual manners. I asked him to stop and he kept doing it on occasion and that was really when I realized decency and self restraint as some of the most attractive qualities in men for me.

Once you learn to really seek a respectable, modest, and decent life things like money really don't matter.

Current guy I'm seeing has been very patient. He picked up quickly on my body language and hasn't tried to pull any moves before I was ready. I was very impressed by his social skills and how well he reads situations. Most guys lack those skills and need to be told directly. So I'm feeling very optimistic and like I'm finally good at picking out what is a good partner vs a bad one.

Pay attention to their current friends and friends from their recent past. [edit] Forgot one: Debt. If she has any at all nope the fuck out because it becomes your debt. And don't listen to her sob story about how foolish she was and is better now. If you're worried that you're missing a catch then let is stit for 6 months and do a follow up, has she made any progress? And I'm talking paid the principal down significantly. You want a partner not someone who's life you have to manage. A mortgage on a well maintained property in a good part of town is probably the only exception. A car lease is not, and that goes triple for a luxury car.

[–] capnflummoxx 0 points (+0|-0) 22 hours ago

Depending on what situation you're in, a car lease isn't necessarily a bad thing. But yeah, not luxury model. I'm talking a work vehicle or some such.

permalink parent

[–] GoddammitMrNoodle 1 points (+1|-0) 19 hours ago

In another thread I weighed in on why car leases are not a good idea for individuals... and was promptly schooled. Apparently some leases come with all sorts of incentives these days which can make them more attractive to individuals. It was news to me and frankly I haven't seen in my local market but I rather live in a backwater. Anyhow the point being that a car lease wasn't necessarily just about the ability to write off expenses in the same year any more. Regardless it's still dumb to finance a vehicle for personal use.

- I don't want to be anyone's father (unless I'm firing a sweet load into something). So, if you're going to call me daddy, even in the bedroom, you're most likely a bit crazy. And this goes double for your Life. Have handled, and be handling your own shit.
- No Horse Girls. If she owns a horse. Run. Start running. NOW. She has a horse that can catch you. So just start running now...
- Extreme Baby Voice™ when it comes to animals.
- Only likes one type of animal ("I'm such a dog girl" or The Cat Lady™). This is a sickness. Even with dogs.
- Wants any type of 'altered animals'. Hypo allergenic this, or hairless that. "Pocket dogs". Nope the fuck out of that shit. If you can't just get a regular dog or cat, then just fuck off.
- The Over-The-Top Animal Lover. The other side of the spectrum. Nope. Just no. (They usually have/want horses.

Or a fucking ferret. Nope. However, lizards and spiders might be cool.)

- In fact, any Over-The-Top type. "I'm the Stoner Chick. See my tiedye!" Nope. "I'm the Girly-Girl." Nope.
- "I love sports!" Nope. Yes, I made a separate line for this one. It's important. I'm talking about the girls who "loves watching football with my dad!" Not really girls who play sports. (This also goes for guys. If you don't play, fuck off. You're fucking weird. You're not a fan. You're weird.) But for girls who only watch because of some daddy issue... no thanks. No thanks.
- Too much cussing or won't cuss at all.
- Closet Nigger Jew Lover. Not really into them sexually, but won't let you say 'nigger' or 'kike' in the privacy of your own home. These people are at the tip of the iceberg of brainwashing. It will only get more restrictive as the relationship goes on.
- Those that buy into media bullshit tactics. "There is no reason to ever hit a woman." Bullshit. "Being a mother is the hardest job in the world." Bullshit. "Women make 77% of a man's paycheck for the same amount of effort." Bullshit. "They are not trying to take your guns! They just want common sense Gun Control." Bullshit. "Black Lives Do Matter." Bullshit.
- Doesn't know how to cook anything. This isn't even Traditional Wives rhetoric. If this person has no idea how to cook any type of meal... just one. This person is just no good. Either you'll have to cook (which may work out), or you'll be eating out your whole life. It's this mentality that is a bit crazy. To never have learned how to make anything to eat? Not even food you like? Nope. Something is wrong here.

In case anyone missed it, or thinks it's a joke. DO NOT date a horse girl. They are always broke because horses are expensive, they'll look in the back of your truck for a gooseneck hitch because their truck is broke down. Of course they can't fix it because they spend all their money on the horses, tack, feed, boarding and so on. NO HORSE GIRLS. They are all crazy.

It looks like the cost of owning a horse is about the same as always making payments on a basic sports car. In other words, about a month's salary every year for a professional.

It's not a red flag, it's a matter of do you want to spend your money on this? If you like happy crazy girls and the outdoors, it's a bargain.

If you are a woman wanting a trad lifestyle:

He better damn well be paying for everything on every date. If he isn't picking up the tab when the possibility of getting pussy is on the table.....what makes you think he will be so willing for fork over $120 for medicine when your toddler gets sick?

It's a quick way to sift through the deadbeat losers and men who are seriously looking to settle down with a wife and start a family.

I NEVER would date dutch. If he suggested dutch it signaled to me a few things (all turn-offs):

1. Either he really can't afford to date (ok, fine, but I am looking to settle down -- if you can't afford a date, you certainly can't afford a family. This means we are not in the same stage in life let's have a nice dinner then bid farewell)
2. He is a virtue signalling faggot trying to lean into the woman empowerment movement to get laid (given I'm not a feminist, that effort is completely wasted on me). If he is sincere in his feminist belief we are not going to get along very long because our values are completely incompatible. If he is using it as a sleazy way to get a piece of ass, he drastically missed my cues and is most likely a lying player who doesn't have the emotional maturity to handle fatherhood yet. (Cool story bro, let's finish this drink and bid farewell).

BTW: Yes, I'm a married tradwife with 2 kids. 5 years marriage going strong. I didn't get married until my mid 30's and spent 15 years stuck in shitty dating cycles. Once I adopted this standard, I found my husband! It works! And no I wasn't a slut either. I had more dates end with Chads slamming car doors in my face than asking for a second date. Why? Because I wouldn't put out.

As a mid 20s man with a well paying career, I disagree with your advice on paying for every meal (I realize it worked for you, but will turn a lot of high value men off). Just because I can afford to pay for your meals and want pussy doesn't mean I HAVE to and on every 2nd date I ask to split the check, I want to see if you will stick around if you THINK I don't have money, i drive a $3500 pick up to first dates and leave my main vehicle at the house, I want you to dump me early because you think I dont have money, bullet dodged, I can surprise you later if you stick around.

Eh, no thanks. Here is the bad news for you....woman don't have to stick around to see if you are "worth it". If you present yourself as an asshole I'm not going to keep talking to you hoping suddenly you are Prince charming in disguise. Especially when there is an email box full of dates waiting....are you married? If not, goid luck with that strategy. This isn't a Lifetime Orginal Movie.....

You're definitely not traditional if your first thought is how much money you can get from your victim date

The entire point of tradwife is putting family first. To do that usually requires one of the parents to stay home. If I'm forgoing working to raise our family it's your duty to be making enough money to support me and your children. If you are pushing back against that idea referring to any woman as sucking you dry for doing so, then you are not looking for a traditional marriage.

You actually illistrare my point great and the filter autoweeds itself. You are already viewing paying for a woman's dinner or night out as a chore and something you shouldn't have to do. As a consumer you have the potential to receive maximum marginal utility from your expenses by not only possibly enjoying the person you are with for the night, but maybe even getting laid. If maximum marginal utility of a possible shag is not enough to motivate you to pick up a $100 dinner tab, how much more unlikely are you to throw down money on responsibilities that absolutely suck?

Sure, in your mind your intentions may be to be a great husband who supports his family, but she doesn't know that. Like I said, this isn't a Lifetime movie plot where your date has an inside look into your motivations and dreams before meeting you. There probably isn't going to be a story arc that happens over a few months where she keeps running into you and realizes you really are a "good guy". The date is your chance to show her that. If you want to stake your chances on the strategy of putting up all the wrong signs of what makes a good trad husband (like paying dutch, putting off signals you are broke, acting douchey) fine. But you are going to have a bad time. This is the real world kid, not a script.

You can't expect to find a tradwife if your perception of a tradwife is "she just wants muh money!" Like I said, it autoweeds itself.

If they don't do anything other than their job. People who go home and stare at the wall are the worst.
