

Instagram hooker found dead on Mexican billionaire's yacht

By Katherine Lam |

 Sinead McNamara, 20, died while being taken to the hospital. She was aboard the super yacht Mayan Queen IV.

Sinead McNamara, 20, died while being taken to the hospital. She was aboard the super yacht Mayan Queen IV. (Instagram)

Authorities are investigating the mysterious death of an Australian Instagram model (hooker) after the 20-year-old's body was discovered Friday aboard a super yacht owned by a Mexican billionaire on a Greek Island.

Sinead McNamara, 20, was found unconscious around 2 a.m. Friday on the back of the Mayan Queen IV in the Greek port of Argostoli in Kefalonia, news.com.au reported. The doctor on the yacht and port authority officials attempted to revive her as a helicopter arrived at the scene to transport her to a hospital.