Because most women that are mothers without mental illnesses are still with the father of their children.

And the ones who aren't still with him are more likely to be met in real life doing parent or breadwinner things than sitting on OK Cupid waiting for a hard dick to message them.

ok, serious question, for you and other voaters: if a woman WAS sane, fairly attractive, and she had a child, but the child is pure white, would you be willing to make a family with her and raise the child as your own? Serious question, not trolling. I honestly don't know my own answer to this question myself. Obviously if the kid was half black or brown, no way I'd raise it, but if it was a pure white child...hm

My first question would be-where is the father? Answer to that will determine course of action.

I dated a woman with a kid, I loved that little man. He's how I know I want kids. We broke up due to her cheating hobby and I haven't seen him since.

Heartbreaking, but I'd do it again for the right woman. It's been about a year and I still miss him.

Nope.

You only live once. Why settle with used up goods when there are plenty of young virgins around?

Highly doubt it. If the father died in an accident or something then it'd be worth thinking about, but no matter what you're committing to treat your spouse as #1 while you're always second to their kid. Which isn't to say that's wrong of them, but it's not a position you as a man want to be in. And also, most divorced women with kids aren't the kind type want to be with anyway. It shows they make poor life decisions, and that they're selfish.

Most of em are fat too, unless they are bots. The whole site has gone to hell. Most of the features were removed and put on the premium accounts, and they have a whole bunch of click to agree to be nice faggy shit.

Single moms are pump and dump material. Ok cupid is a hook up site. You do the math.

I looked at online dating for a minute about a year ago. Single mothers and fat black chicks is all there is. Lots of coalburners. Lot's of straight up trash. They're all pretty demanding, but even the fat chicks have attitude like they're God's gift or some shit. All I can figure is that there's 200 thirsty chumps drooling over everything on those sites with a pair of tits, inflating their egos and buying them dinners and shit.

You're coming across these women online because you are being primed by fate to meet someone that deserves you. One day, you will close the OKCupod site and lock eyes with your future wifey IRL. Because you've been on dating sites, you'll know how to open a conversation, and you'll pursue wifey because you are in prowling mode already. :3 OkCupid is a rest stop in your love life, not the ultimate destination.

Mental mommies are also online for the attention, because someone is going to eventually give it to them, and thus validate their existence. :3

I recall that OkCupid specifically outed itself as a hard left ideologue site a while back. After a quick search of their political leanings I've found shit like this, this, and this.

It doesn't look like they're exactly hiding their political agenda. In left wing circles it's probably THE dating app because of it. In short, it's basically AntifaMingle.com.

I am an attractive decent female. I had a POF account for two days until I found the male I am about to meet for dinner on Thursday.

I think high quality people are likely to get snatched up quickly so they're less likely to stick around. The lower quality women can be on those apps for months and still find nothing. You have a very small window of opportunity to find the good ones before they're gone.

I think that when a girl is in the 18-25 range, has a fit body, she's cute, and not mentally fucked up, she gets more than enough attention without dating apps.

The women on dating apps need more attention than they're getting just by being cheery and receptive to conversation in their everyday lives, so they're either not getting much attention because something's wrong with them, or they're getting a lot of attention but need more because something's wrong with them.

Take this one for example https://imgoat.com/uploads/647966b734/88909.jpg 24, slim, cute face. At first glance she'd be a good option to settle down with. She's on okcupid because she's needy, clingy, obstinate, and does heroin.

If she were clean and sane, she'd be drowning in high quality prospects. But she's not, so most of the guys she meets probably let her flake or stop texting her pretty fast.

Think about who is signing up for OkCupid. Why would a man use it, why would a woman use it.

No one has mentioned this yet but Okcupid sorts your profile based off of how many people are interested in you. They did this in the past, now days they probably do it even better.

So if you're a hot young guy who gets tons of messages and interests. Then your profile is at the top of the list for women who get an equal amount of interest. Which are also hot and young. If your profile hardly gets any interest at all, then your profile automatically goes down to the bottom of the pile with the rest of the low tier shit which is ugly/fat/women with mental illnesses and children.

It's easy to test just create a profile using some hot guy's photograph pulled off of the rate me threads on 4chan or somewhere. Don't use a model or google images, just use a natural looking one. This is just for testing purposes or cat fishing w/e you wanna do.

As for making your profile actual visible to hot women, it's best you delete your profile and start a new one with a brand new email address after about a month so you can assure your profile is always visible to hot women. I don't believe profiles are IP bound on OKcupid but they might be.

Because OK Cupid has nothing but excellent men on it to pair up with single white crazy women. Their standards are too high yes, but once in a while an amazingly attractive man falls for a woman who is undeserving, one that he met on OK Cupid.

The hierarchy is as follows:

Men who are rich enough to get any woman; 18 year olds: Millionare dates dot com

Men who aren't; Women with less than realistic expectations: OkCupid.com

Pedophiles and truckers + willing Whores: Skout

People who don't know what they're doing but most are cheating on someone: Plentyoffish.com

Your mom is a gold digger and created your profile: Match.com Horny meth heads and more willing whores: Craigslist

Real life meetings High school
