Elon Musk and Panasonic engaged in "product dumping" because they both knew, over a decade ago, that the 18650 lithium ion batteries would 1.) degrade and explode due to faulty chemistry and dendrite expansion, 2.) Had toxic cancer-causing fumes when ignited, 3.) used child labor and genocide regions for mining the raw materials, 4.) could never hold up in auto powerplant use, 5.) sickened and killed the workers making them; and other horrific things that were covered up in an epic, and ongoing, safety scam because U.S. Senator's and CIA executives own stock in lithium ion batteries. ASSERTION R:

A typical boondoggle in this case is exemplified by one of the many victims: "...We owned a global vehicle design and manufacturing business and a global clean energy production and storage business financed by the U.S. Government. White House and California politicians owned our competitors and re-routed our funding to our competitors, who were the friends and campaign financiers of those politicians. Those politicians contracted Fusion GPS, Black Cube, Gawker/Gizmodo, Crowd-strike, etc. to run hit-jobs on us to blockade our business for their benefit. Those politicians engaged in felony bribery, anti-trust violations and racketeering and they are still being protected by regulators who have conflict-of-interest relations with those politicians..."
