

The Bill Cosby case has ensured that nobody will ever again take a woman home from the bar. (whatever)

Victim politics, and fempower ruins the sexual market place with every gutteral whine it makes because it fails to see how it opens a door for anyone to be accused and convicted in the court of public opinion. Mike Pence set the standard when he wouldn't be caught alone with a woman.

Just as well...sleeping with strangers is a stupid way to play Russian roulette with your health anyway. Not doing so is the only way a man can protect himself these days, what with #metoo going around like wildfire.

Condoms exist.

A steak wrapped in cellophane tastes bad. Sex wrapped in latex is dull.

They do. But they aren't foolproof. They break, and even though an intact one can prevent pregnancy it isn't always enough to keep you from getting an STD, seeing as more of your flesh than just what's on your penis comes into contact with the woman's body while you have sex. And beyond that, the toll that promiscuity takes on a person's mental and emotional wellbeing cannot be ignored. It's even more unhealthy and dangerous for women but that doesn't mean it's totally fine for men. Degenerate behaviour is still degenerate behaviour, and it's bad for everybody.

I think the saddest part of your statement is that it is even a realization at all. In this day and age, the way things should be is treated like it's some great epiphany.

Don't get me wrong, I'm glad you said it -- and I do hope more come to feel as you -- but it's still a sad sentiment.

This is probably a good plan anyway.

Up until 50 years ago a woman that went alone to man's home was shamed by everybody else, especially other women. They just didn't do it. Now we know it was to protect the men as much as it was ever to protect the dumb slut.

all you gotta do is not mess with the powers that be.

Cosby spent 15 years giving speeches across america telling black folks to get their shit together. . .and it was working...

((they)) couldnt have that so, they lock him up on false bullshit till he dies.

he is the example. ((they)) have sent their message:

"WE OWN YOU."

You should be finding good women at Church, not at a bar. Bars are places for drunks and whores. You are worth more than that.

You just now decided not to have sex with a woman who is too wasted to consent. Good for you.

What's next, no more drunk driving?

There's a wide range between stone cold sober, and too drunk to consent. A woman can be drunk but still manage to consent, same as a man. If she is unable to stand or remain conscious, and OP takes her home, then yeah, a case could be made that he's having sex with women too wasted to consent. But just drunk? No.

If two adults are equally drunk, why is it the male that is doing the raping?

I once had this plan, it doesn't survive. It's hard to get them into bed totally sober, even after a bunch of dates and clear horniness. pay attention to their intake so you can testify to that. (most recent girl of mine had part of one glass of wine, I had two fingers of whiskey) and make them do some of the work. (she reached into my pants and grabbed my junk) Remember these details and other clear signals given, things stated and done, they do matter in court. out of court, nothing matters, you can only hope to not become a media case. Or, do, and spin your 15 mins of fame into a windfall so you don't have to work much afterwards.

Edit: forgot to add, send a message the next morning about having a great time, and something about seeing her again. Again, only matters in actual court.
