Why are we worrying about mosquitoes when we've still got so many Jews everywhere

As much as I fucking hate the little buzzing cock suckers... they are big source of food for bats.... and bats kick ass

Not just bats... They spend most of their lives in water.

I assume you mean larve, yeah you be right countletless I typical bat can eat up to over 1000k mosquitoes per HOUR.

I've been thinking on for quite awhile to make bat houses etc and giving them away and teaching people how to use them.

What is truly SCARY is how long before the develop a mosquito which can carry a Genetic Mutation that sterilizes PEOPLE also? Mosquitoes are the biggest vector or carrier of disease next to flies. Would not be too hard for these Eugenics loving Leaders develop something to De-Population large swaths of people in their quest to 'Save the Planet'? I see this as a slippery slope.

Eugenics is great. We should be butchering unproductive degenerates and sterilizing the ones we can keep alive for labor. That said, I doubt you realize that you are in a eugenic/dysgenic system regardless of whether or not humans take control of it.

The overpopulation problem may just have a solution in the near future, and no, I'm not talking about mosquitoes.

And because of the Endangered Species Act, the U.S. will become the last habitat and refuge for Anopheles gambiae. Move over, China, it's our turn to be the filthy disease-pot anus of the world.

I hate mosquitos like the plague, but every time science comes up with means to kill off one particular pest, the method either proves to be useless, or only produces another (often even larger) problem.

Not to speak of the food chain issues other goats already brought up.

I wish they would stop trying to help the niggers, nature is trying to get rid of them, still we keep feeding the rats and cure their illnesses.

Does no one remember this story in 2010-2011? They already found a way to kill off mosquitoes:
