

Who gives a shit about foreign governments when its the US tech monopolies that appear to be doing all the Election meddling? (politics)

by obvious_throwaway1

Microsoft, Apple, Alphabet/Google, and Facebook are all the biggest manipulators of worldwide politics. All of these fuckers need to be broken up using the anti-trust laws they've bribed politicians not to enforce.

P.S. Anytime some piece of shit goes on about threats to our "Democracy", that motherfucker singled themselves out as outright enemies to our REPUBLIC, by trying to continue to propagate the bullshit lie that we are a fuckin' Democracy in the first place. Hang these traitors.

All censorship is a problem. Freedom is not free.

They're tools of the deep state just as politicians and political parties are.

Understand that these companies are all Deep State. Literally, the CIA created Facebook and Google. Google is basically an arm of DARPA. When Google or Facebook censors you it's literally the Deep State and the government censoring you.

All tech monopolies are allowed to be monopolies because they serve an important function - they are the loophole the US Government CORPORATION uses to violate the US constitution against the citizenry. It's censorship by proxy.

You are 100% correct. Thusly the importance of the NDAA and "Russian bots" everywhere. By declaring someone is a "Russian bot", under the terms of the NDAA, these corporations become legally protected. Likewise, when the CIA or FBI tells these companies to cancel someone the unconstitutional action suddenly becomes legally sheltered.

It absolutely is censorship by proxy.

If I had my way your post would be pinned.

Understanding this fact is paramount to understanding the role these companies play in our demise.
