How They Will Try To Shut You Up When You Speak Out And How To Get Out Ahead Of The Corrupt Company's PR Attackers

An "Activist" is usually a taxpayer who got screwed over in a corruption program.

A "Leaker" is a "Whistleblower" who was attacked, without defense, for reporting a crime. We encourage anyone wanting to leak something to carbon copy a report of it to EVERY law enforcement agency, Auditor General, and Attorney General first, with time-stamped proof of when you reported it. If you get shut down after that, go to EVERY publication news desk of big and obscure publications.

SOMO Team

An Activist is an active member of the public who is paying attention and who learned that fairness and "so unto others" was the proper way to be a good neighbor.

Google has proven, time and time again, from RapGenius to Rick Santorum to Uri Dowbenko to Dr. Guy Hingston to Bettina Wulff to Johnny I. Henry to the recent Aussie "Mokbel" case to vast numbers of other cases, that they consciously manipulate public information in order to try to control public thought, moods and inclinations, relative to who their investors friends, and enemies, are.

This is a violation of anti-monopoly laws in a number of countries. Many feel that Google has taken over the majority portion of the internet and, thus, must answer to a more overt set of ethics, transparency and law requirements. They say it cannot exist simply as a private thought control tool for certain billionaires. Google's arguments that the defamations and attacks are "accidental results from arbitrary algorithms" has been proven to be 100% false in a number of court cases world-wide, and by a number of leading SEO forensics analytic experts who have now made themselves available to testify in investigations.
