A BRITISH diver who helped in the Thailand cave rescue is suing Elon Musk after the Tesla tycoon called him a "paedo guy".

Vernon Unsworth has launched legal action after Musk repeated the slur despite earlier being forced to apologise after he first made the allegation.

But his mother Vera Unsworth has revealed her son is now consulting lawyers. "He's consulted his lawyer this morning. That's all he's told me," the 88-year-old said from her house in Braintree, Essex, reports the MailOnline.
