Musk, who funded the Obama campaign and, in exchange, received more government kick-backs than any man in history, wants Trump wiped out before Trump cuts off his gravy-train federal “Mooch Fest” which Musk, and Musk Crony’s bribed into existence at taxpayer expense

According to the Huffington Post, the tech elite in attendance includes Apple CEO Tim Cook, Google co-founder Larry Page, the creator of Napster and Facebook investor Sean Parker, as well as billionaire entrepreneur Elon Musk of Tesla Motors. A New York Times spokeswoman also confirmed its editor recently attended the American Enterprise Institute’s annual World Forum conference.

However, the conference is fiercely off the record, so it’s not really known what was talked about or by whom. However, the speculation that the tech giants joined discussions on how to stop US presidential front runner Donald Trump from reaching the White House will get tongues wagging.

The annual meeting is held on a private island resort off the coast of Georgia and closed to the press. An email written about the event and sent by Weekly Standard editor Bill Kristol reportedly said:

"A specter was haunting the World Forum — the specter of Donald Trump. There was much unhappiness about his emergence, a good deal of talk, some of it insightful and thoughtful, about why he’s done so well, and many expressions of hope that he would be defeated... The key task not, to once again paraphrase Karl Marx, is less to understand Trump than to stop him."

Meanwhile, a much smaller event in Britain, held on the record for politicians, religious figures and members of the Muslim community, made it no secret naming Donald Trump “UK Islamophobe of the year, 2016.”
