Details of $20 million in payments to the Biden family and their partners in Russia, Ukraine and Kazakhstan during Joe's time as vice president have been released by Republicans on the House Oversight Committee. They suggest Hunter and his business partner Archer used a shell company to 'hide' millions in payments from overseas companies and oligarchs. The bank records show links between Russian billionaire Yelena Baturina and the Biden family and how Hunter and Archer were paid $1 million yearly to be on the Burisma Board of Directors. The records show Baturina wired $3.5 million to Rosemont Seneca Thornton, a shell company belonging to Hunter and Archer, in February 2014. Three-quarters of a million dollars was then transferred directly to Archer, and the rest was used to fund a new company, Rosemont Seneca Bohai.

Akey associate of Hunter Biden reluctantly admitted details about how the Biden family business was run — and those details are shocking.

Devon Archer, a longtime business partner and close friend of Hunter Biden's, told congressional investigators Monday that at a meeting in Dubai on Dec. 4, 2015, top executives of Ukrainian energy concern Burisma asked Hunter Biden and himself for help from D.C. At the time of the meeting, Hunter Biden's dad, Joe Biden, was serving as Barack Obama's vice president as well as his point person on Ukraine. Mykola Zlochevsky, the owner of Burisma, and Vadym Pozharski, a Burisma executive, wanted to get Ukrainian prosecutor Viktor Shokin fired as he was investigating the company for corruption, Archer told members of Congress.

Hunter Biden put Zlochevsky and Pozharski on a call with "D.C.," Archer said, noting he was not part of the phone call so couldn't possibly know who exactly was on the other end of the line. Joe Biden did meet and speak more than 20 times with various business associates who were paying for access to the Biden family, Archer admitted.

In this case, Burisma was paying Archer and Hunter Biden as much as \$83,000 a month to serve on the Ukrainian energy concern's board, despite the fact that neither man had relevant experience or expertise for the job outside of their frequent meetings and contact with the then-vice president. The two were hired the same month that the U.K. had opened an investigation into company officials. The money was well spent.

A mere five days after the Dubai meeting and phone call, Vice President Joe Biden gave a speech to the Ukrainian Rada, its parliament in Kyiv, attempting to lay the groundwork for firing Shokin.

It took just a few short months before Shokin was fired. Joe Biden bragged in a public speech in January 2018 that he was personally responsible for getting that firing accomplished so quickly. In fact, he claimed he had bullied the Ukrainian government into firing the investigator by threatening to withhold a billion-dollar loan guarantee unless he got what he wanted. Seriously:

And I was supposed to announce that there was another billion-dollar loan guarantee. And I had gotten a commitment from Poroshenko and from Yatsenyuk that they would take action against the state prosecutor. And they didn't. So they said they had — they were walking out to a press conference. I said, nah, I'm not going to — or, we're not going to give you the billion dollars. They said, you have no authority. You're not the president. The president said — I said, call him. (Laughter.) I said, I'm telling you, you're not getting the billion dollars. I said, you're not getting the billion. I'm going to be leaving here in, I think it was about six hours. I looked at them and said: I'm leaving in six hours. If the prosecutor is not fired, you're not getting the money. Well, son of a bitch. (Laughter.) He got fired.

What an amazing series of events that led to Joe Biden personally fulfilling what Burisma was paying Hunter Biden to accomplish. What are the odds?

Not the Weather

After Archer's transcribed interview, Rep. Dan Goldman, a Democrat from New York who previously ran some of the Russia-collusion hoax as a congressional staffer, ran to the cameras to cushion the blow of the explosive new information.

For years, the corporate press and other Democrats had uncritically accepted Biden's preposterous claim that he had never spoken with his son or his son's business partners about the Biden family business. Even when Biden business associate Tony Bobulinski described — in detail, on the record, and with supporting evidence — how Joe Biden served as the "chairman" of the family business, the media largely ignored the explosive claims.

With Archer echoing Bobulinski's claims, and further noting that the business wouldn't have worked without Joe Biden's "brand," Goldman and others like him had to concede that Biden did in fact speak with Hunter's business associates. In fact, they had to admit he spoke with them frequently. However, Goldman claimed, they were only talking about the weather.

While no one actually thinks Joe Biden has a secret interest in meteorology that he only shares with corrupt foreign oligarchs who happen to be in business with his son, the claim is ridiculous for another reason.

As conservative broadcaster Larry O'Connor wrote, "Understand this: Hunter getting Joe on speakerphone WAS THE DELIVERABLE. It literally doesn't matter what was discussed. Showing that he could get the Vice President of the United States on the phone was all Hunter had to show his clients to seal the deal. He was selling ACCESS not policy. Getting The Big Guy to pick up the phone demonstrated his ability to deliver that access. Case closed. Impeach."

Otherwise, why would Joe Biden get on the phone with his business associates at all? Why would Barack Obama's point man in Ukraine be talking to Ukrainian officials under suspicion of massive corruption who were paying large sums of money to his son? What was the point, exactly, if not as chairman of the family business?

We know Burisma was paying Biden family members for help getting powerful people in D.C. to get investigators off its back. We know Biden was the top official in D.C. related to Ukraine. Five days after Burisma made the request, Biden was laying the groundwork for the firing. And he has publicly bragged about getting the prosecutor fired.

In 2019, President Donald Trump was impeached for raising the issue of a potential corruption scandal involving Joe Biden, Hunter Biden, and Burisma. At that time, scores of corporate media and other Democrat activists asserted without evidence that Shokin was not investigating Burisma and that it was a lie to suggest otherwise.

For instance, Glenn Kessler of The Washington Post wrote in 2019, "Trump has falsely claimed that Biden in 2015 pressured the Ukrainian government to fire Viktor Shokin, the top Ukrainian prosecutor, because he was investigating Ukraine's largest private gas company, Burisma, which had added Biden's son, Hunter, to its board in 2014. There are two big problems with this claim: One, Shokin was not investigating Burisma or Hunter Biden, and two, Shokin's ouster was considered a diplomatic victory."

Since that false "fact" "check," investigators in the House and Senate have shown that the Biden family business involves oligarchs and other powerful figures from Russia, Romania, China, and even France and other countries. Joe Biden reportedly met and spoke with his son's employers from across the globe. The corporate press and other Democrats will fight disclosure about the Biden family business every step of the way, but Archer's transcribed interview shows how important it is to reveal the truth of that business to the American people.

And now, as his huckster son's slimy partner in international grift has started singing like canary, it's harder for President Joe's exhausted minders to keep cleaning up on aisle jive. Yes, it's long past time for us to ask: Who is the REAL Joe Biden? The last stop for Hunter's prison-bound buddy before the Graybar hotel was a closed-door meeting with the House Oversight Committee last week. Devon Archer squawked that Hunty's daddy called into his morally bankrupt child's con jobs - I mean, business meetings - at least 20 times to chat up the prospective suckers and discuss the weather. Archer said that Joe's calls showed shady operators from Kyiv to Beijing that Hunter could reach out and touch the old man (eww!) any time of day or night. But the Honorable Joseph R. Biden, Jr. promised that he never spoke to his son about business. What gives Could it be that mumbling Joe is not the selfless public servant, doting father, and child-nibbling granddad the mainstream media slobbers over?

A former stripper who became Hunter Biden's best pal and lover has revealed the First Son's obsession with all-over spray tans, his frantic final weeks before getting sober and his relentless pursuit of his father Joe's approval.

Allie Kennedy's revelations include new details of how Hunter craved his father's love and attention and how he always felt second-best to his older brother Beau.

And when Beau died of cancer in 2015 Hunter went into a self-destructive spiral which led to the years of embarrassing headlines of shady business dealings, heavy drug use and sex with prostitutes that have dogged Joe Biden's presidency.

Speaking to DailyMail.com last Monday, Kennedy, 35, described Hunter as a little boy lost who was his father's 'whipping boy'.

'I truly think that he's been lost since he was a little boy,' she said. 'He'd say that he was the black sheep and he'd always been second to Beau.

'Beau is the hero, the white knight.'

'Hunter's a soft person and when his brother died, I think everything fell apart for him,' Kennedy said.

'I've had very deep conversations with him,' she added. 'He's kind of the whipping boy of the family. I don't think that the man was ever properly loved by his parents.'

'I think for his father's approval, he would do anything. I think that's how he was stupid enough to get tied into that Russia, China, Ukraine business. He just wanted his father's approval and love.'

She said Hunter never discussed his overseas business dealings with her – but was generous spending the proceeds.

'I saw him hand out money like it was nothing. We would be driving down the street in Los Angeles and he would pull over and give a homeless man $100.'

Heavily tattooed Kennedy has modeled, appeared on the cover of Inked Magazine and was a 'featured patient' for Miami plastic surgeon Dr. Leonard Hochstein, husband of Real Housewives star Lisa Hochstein.

Now a New York esthetician who specializes in spray tans, she said she met Hunter in 2017 when she was working as a stripper in Manhattan.

Though several pictures of them in compromising positions appeared on the laptop he abandoned in a Delaware computer shop, she insists they only had sex once, right at the end of their two-year friendship.

She says they met after she got a call from a girlfriend, saying a rich man was offering $500 to get a spray tan in his hotel room. She jumped at the chance for the big tip, on a job for which she usually charged $60.

'He needed a spray tan at like nine o'clock at night. Now we know he was probably cracked out,' she said. 'I show up and it's three girls in his room. I guess he was living in the hotel at this point.

'I did the spray tan, he tipped me $500. And then he gave me an extra $300 to do the other girls. I was like, oh my god, I just made $800 in 20 minutes. Of course I took his card.'

Kennedy texted Hunter a topless picture to celebrate her graduation in January 2019, saying her mother was joining her to celebrate

She said he was charming and friendly – but showed one giant 'red flag' from that first meeting.

'He was like, do you smoke? I was like hell yeah I smoke,' she said. 'We go out onto the balcony and I expect him to pull out pot, and this motherf***er pulls out a crack pipe. I was like wait a minute no I don't smoke that.

'But I don't judge people. I danced in Manhattan for 10 years, I've seen it all.

'I thought it was a party thing. I didn't know he was addicted until a month into our friendship when I realized, wait a second, are you always on crack?'

She said the drugged-up President's son messed up his first tan that night and paid $500 again for another the next day, then started taking her out to dinners, including at STK steakhouse in Manhattan.

'We just became friends. Anytime that he was in town, he would call me up, I'd spray tan him and then we would go to dinners,' she said.

'I never noticed anything weird. He did a very good job of presenting himself to be a decent human.'

Though she enjoyed his generosity, Kennedy was perturbed by his relationship with Hallie, the widow of former Delaware Attorney General Beau.

She said Hallie, 50, smoked crack with Hunter and got nude spray tans from Kennedy together and joined them at dinners.

'One night he left me and Hallie at the table together at dinner,' Kennedy told DailyMail.com. 'She slid next to me and said "I know it looks weird. You're probably judging me. But I never cheated on my husband."

'She wanted to make it very clear to me. I was like, cheated on your husband or not, this is your brother in law. This is so frickin' weird.

'She told me that they started hooking up kind of like a trauma bond.

'She was also on crack, she was probably paranoid that I was judging her.

'That night she was smoking crack and saying "I never do this". I was like, I don't know girl, you look like you know what you're doing to me.'

In texts and recorded phone conversations on Hunter's laptop, Hallie also refers to buying and using crack.

Kennedy told DailyMail.com how she tried to keep the First Son off drugs, but said he devolved into a 'secret life' of debauchery with prostitutes and crack cocaine.

She said Hunter was 'obsessed' with the drug, even claiming that its purity made it 'healthy'.

'He would talk about how crack was the greatest drug, more pure than cocaine.

'He'd say it's not a poor man's drug and he'd give me all these crazy facts about crack. He really loves crack. It's kind of weird.'

'He'd say actually, it's the purest form. It's way healthier for you than cocaine. I was like, listen to that sentence Hunter. Stop talking.'

Kennedy was friends with Hunter for two years from 2017 to 2019 but then he dropped her just as his father Joe was starting his run for the presidency.

The mother and ex-magazine model, said that despite lying to her, trying to take back money he gave her and attempting to swear her to silence, she still has a soft spot for Hunter, 53, and argued for more compassion for addicts.

Records on Hunter's laptop show 13 payments to Kennedy totaling $18,600, from January 2018 to January 2019, as well as tickets flying her from Los Angeles to New York first class.

Kennedy said she soon began to notice Hunter's addiction.

'I noticed that the drugs were an issue, not just a recreational thing,' she said.

'That's when, as a friend would, I started to try to step in and help him out. I would check on him every day, make sure that he was staying sober. Any time that he was feeling he wanted to use, he'd give me a call.'

Kennedy said she and Hunter were very close, and that their relationship was mostly platonic besides a one night stand in Los Angeles towards the end of their friendship.

After Beau Biden died in 2015 from brain cancer at age 46, his widow Hallie began an affair with her brother-in-law Hunter

Texts on the abandoned laptop show the two sent each other naked pictures. She referred to having 'licked lots of places' on Hunter's body and she faceted him in the shower.

'I flirted with him regularly to keep his attention and keep him closer so he wasn't going out with girls from the club who had bad intentions, taking pictures of him passed out,' she told DailyMail.com.

'But he knew I was all talk. That's probably the one thing that kept him trailing me for so long.'

Kennedy said she introduced Hunter to her then friend Zoe Kestan, but that Kestan, 29, 'used' him, hoping he would become her 'sugar daddy', and instead of helping keep him sober she 'enabled' him on another drug binge in Los Angeles in 2018.

The story allegedly differs from lingerie designer Kestan's testimony to a grand jury in Hunter's criminal tax probe.

Kestan, who uses the username 'weed_slut_420' on her social media, reportedly told the grand jury she urged Hunter to get off drugs, after spending time with him at top hotels such as the Four Seasons and Mercer in Manhattan and the Hollywood Roosevelt and Chateau Marmont in LA, seeing his lavish spending and debauched activities.

'I didn't see him or hear from him for two months. I found out he was in LA with Zoe on a drug binge,' Kennedy said.

'She was an enabler. I didn't want people around him that had bad intentions. She thought he would be her sugar daddy. I said more importantly we want him to be alive.'

The esthetician said Hunter apologized profusely for lying to her about his drug use, and they patched up their friendship. For months she believed he was on the straight and narrow, until she caught him using again at a party.

'On my best friend's birthday, we were all getting ready, doing our makeup,' she said. 'Hunter was in the bathroom with the door closed, and I could smell the disgusting smell. You'll never forget that smell.'

'I knocked on the door. He said "I'll be right out," and then I heard him scuffling around.'

'I went to the desk drawer and saw the pens were gone, and I knew immediately what he was doing. He used to take pens apart and use them to smoke crack.'

'So I kicked the door open and smacked him across his face as hard as I could.'

'I cried, I was like how could you do this to me? And I walked out. Apparently a couple days later he went to rehab again.'

Kennedy said that in late 2018 Hunter started frequently acting panicked, and told her secrets about him were going to be revealed in the media.

In December 2018 the New York Times published a story revealing his business dealings with a Chinese government-linked oil company, CEFC – that would later become the center of allegations of the President's involvement in Hunter's foreign ventures.

One WhatsApp conversation showed Hunter sent Kennedy $800 for a 'webcam training shower edition'

'Towards the end of our friendship in late 2018, early 2019, every time I talked to him he was in some kind of a panic about something that was going to come out in the media,' Kennedy said.

He was also under increasing financial stress, even resorting to asking his friend for $1,000 one day when his bank account was empty. Kennedy refused to give him money.

She said the last time she saw him was around April 2019, in Philadelphia – the month before he met and married South African filmmaker Melissa Cohen.

'He drove his dad's truck to come see me,' she said. 'He said he had to take me to dinner and he had to tell me something. He was acting erratic. I knew that he was back on drugs again.'

'He comes to dinner, his daughter was there. He was running in and out, sweating profusely, on his phone the whole time and panicky.'

'That conversation was kind of like him saying, this is the last time you're gonna hear from me because my dad's gonna be the president.'

'He just begged that I didn't try to go to the media and say bad things about him. Then I never heard from him again.'

Around the same time, Hunter abandoned his laptop at a Delaware computer repair store. It eventually ended up in the media's hands in September 2020.

Kennedy said that when she saw photos of herself from the laptop circulating online, posing with Hunter's prostitutes, she was upset that he didn't publicly defend her.

'That was in 2019. And here we are in 2023 and he hasn't said a damn word. No apologies. Nothing,' she said. 'For him to not even try to protect me a little bit, what a scumbag!'

But Kennedy added that she 'forgives' Hunter for lying about his addiction – and said that the alleged corruption and shady foreign dealings on the First Son's laptop deserve more attention than his drug use.

'After seeing the things I saw on the laptop, I'm like, why did I vouch for you? What a shady dude,' she said.

'But I just want him to know that I forgive him. I still have compassion for him. We need to be more kind and gentle when it comes to addicts.'

'I think he's had a hard life. At his core he is a soft and very easily manipulated person. He's been used by his father. I think it hurts his heart because he knows that, and that's why he's so self-destructive.'

'Biden's lies are piling up': Republicans ramp up impeachment threats and insist Devon Archer's damning testimony showed 'direct evidence of Joe's influence peddling' - and sheds 'new light' on Hunter's cushy plea deal

Top Republicans say Hunter Biden's business partner Devon Archer's damning testimony shines a 'new light' on the plea deal that fell apart in court last week, and reveals that Joe was directly 'implicated' in his son's dealings. Archer told Congress in bombshell testimony Monday the 'Biden brand' helped keep Ukrainian firm Burisma from going bankrupt. He also revealed Joe was on the phone or present in-person at least 20 times while his son who called him 'my guy' was talking with foreign associates. Republicans claim Archer's testimony added to mounting evidence that the then-Vice President was involved in Hunter's overseas deals that raked in millions from nations including China and Romania. However, Democrats say that the phone calls were innocent and did not involve business.
