

Who Is More Delusional: Elon Musk Or Reid Hoffman?

Most billionaires these days turn out to be dynastic sociopaths who feel that they MUST use their windfall to manipulate our government, buy sex islands and, generally fuck with everyone who is not a Richie Rich.

LinkedIn co-founder Reid Hoffman, a billionaire mega-donor to President Joe Biden and the Democrat Party, is helping fund former United Nations Ambassador Nikki Haley's run for president in the GOP primary solely to stop former President Donald Trump from securing the nomination.

In December, the New York Times revealed that Hoffman had donated $250,000 to the Stand for America PAC, which is backing Haley in the GOP primary. In May, Hoffman admitted to visiting convicted sex offender Jeffrey Epstein's private island, named "Little Saint James" but more commonly referred to as "Pedophile Island."

The Times reported:

The pro-Haley super PAC, SFA Fund Inc., was asked specifically by Mr. Hoffman's political team if it would take money from Mr. Hoffman, given that he is a Democrat who actively supports President Biden, Mr. Mehlhorn said. The super PAC, he added, said yes. [Emphasis added]

In an open letter on Tuesday, Hoffman wrote that his sole purpose for funding Haley's presidential bid in the GOP primary is to stop Trump from securing the nomination.

"So why Nikki Haley? Plainly, because Governor Haley is also the only Republican nominee other than Trump with any chance of winning the GOP nomination," Hoffman wrote:

Nikki Haley has disappointed me with her inconsistency in denouncing Trump, especially after the violence of January 6, and I disagree with a wide swath of her policy views. Yet, American politics are in crisis. While we are fighting to defend the idea of America from the threat of Trumpism, we need to engage with people with whom we disagree about many areas of policy and culture. Nikki Haley would not be as good for America as Joe Biden, but America would survive her administration. [Emphasis added]

If America is to avoid another Trump presidency, it will be because Trump loses an election next year. If he is to lose, it will either be to Nikki Haley in the primary, or Joe Biden in the general. I have invested in the Stand for America PAC supporting Nikki Haley because I agree with Jamie Dimon's recent comments that Democrats should support Haley in the primary and Biden in the general election. [Emphasis added]

Hoffman serves as one of the Democrat Party's biggest billionaire donors. In October, Breitbart News Editor-in-Chief Alex Marlow exposed that Hoffman, along with billionaire George Soros, is partially behind a clandestine group that has billed itself as the "Good Information Foundation" and is accused of election meddling.

Hoffman is behind several dark money far-left organizations and has been described as "one part Soros, one part Michael Bloomberg, and one part Laurene Powell Jobs" by Marlow:

He has since fashioned himself into a Democratic mega-donor, though his activities are largely hidden from public view. He is one of the key framers of the modern political infrastructure that is contouring the current American landscape by allowing the super-wealthy to use nonprofits and lenient disclosure laws to make large political contributions in relative obscurity. Tactically, he embraces both the disingenuous and the censorious – as well as the Chinese Communist Party. [Emphasis added]

But Hoffman's shady political activity doesn't end there. He also funded a series of pro-Doug Jones ads in Alabama that were modeled on the much-decried Russian propaganda peddled on Facebook and Twitter in 2016. The project's operatives posed as conservative Alabamians on Facebook and tried to use the platform to divide Republicans, pushing them toward a write-in candidate and away from Roy Moore, the GOP's nominee for Senate. They also ran a scheme, according to the New York Times, "to link the Moore campaign to thousands of Russian accounts that suddenly began following the Republican candidate on Twitter, a development that drew national media attention." [Emphasis added]

...

Hoffman is also an occasional collaborator with communist China on a direct level. As Peter Schweizer reported in his #1 bestselling book, Red-Handed, LinkedIn is the most China-friendly American-owned social networking site and Hoffman is known as "the most connected man in Silicon Valley." LinkedIn managed to stay operational in the authoritarian country by remaining in compliance with Chinese censorship rules until 2021. By comparison, Facebook and Twitter have been banned by the CCP since 2009. [Emphasis added]

Marlow also identified Hoffman as one of six billionaire donors to Biden that make up the "American oligarchy" in his New York Times bestselling book Breaking Biden.

When other Republican presidential candidates called out Haley for taking donations from Big Tech, Wall Street, and Democrat billionaires, she defended accepting the cash, saying her opponents are "just jealous."

"When it comes to these corporate people that want to suddenly support us, we'll take it," Haley said.

Strip Clubs, Girlfriends, Porn: Here's How Hunter Allegedly Spent His Money Instead Of Paying Taxes

Arjun Singh

- A recent indictment of Hunter Biden reveals that he took business tax deductions on personal expenditures.
- Hunter Biden allegedly spent hundreds of thousands of dollars on payments to women, strip clubs, a sex club membership and pornographic websites, the indictment reads.
- Among the biggest expenditures Hunter Biden made was "Payments – Various Women," totaling $683,212 spent between 2016 and 2019.

Hunter Biden, the son of President Joe Biden, took tax deductions for membership fees in a "sex club," payments to women with whom he had sexual relationships and on pornographic websites, according to a federal indictment issued on Thursday for his conduct.

Hunter Biden has been charged with nine felony counts of tax evasion, tax fraud and failure to file taxes in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California, relating to over $1.4 million of taxes that he allegedly owed to the federal government but did not pay. Instead of paying taxes, Hunter Biden allegedly used the money, exceeding $4.9 million over four years, for various personal expenditures.

Apart from cash withdrawals of the money, the biggest expenditure Hunter Biden allegedly made was "Payments – Various Women," totaling $683,212 spent between 2016 and 2019. Many of these women were allegedly individuals with whom Hunter Biden had a sexual relationship, according to testimony from a whistleblower before the House Ways and Means Committee in June.

Indictment of Robert Hunter Biden – December 7, 2023 by Daily Caller News Foundation on Scribd

Hunter Biden's sexual relationships with various women have been documented in extensive pornographic imagery leaked from his discarded laptop, which was recovered from a Delaware-based computer repair shop in 2020. The laptop's data included emails to his business associates, which have formed the basis of a separate investigation of his father's potential involvement in his business dealings in Ukraine and China.

Hunter Biden was married to Kathleen Buhle from 1993 until 2017. The alleged payments dramatically increased after their divorce, which was finalized in 2017, to $138,837 that year up from just $4,400 in 2016.

"Adult entertainment" accounted for $188,960 of Hunter Biden's spending during the period, according to the indictment. This allegedly included $10,000 to a sex club.

Hunter Biden also spent $309,277 on "Tuition/Education/Extracurriculars," coinciding with the period that his daughter, Naomi Biden, was enrolled in law school at Columbia University. The whistleblower testified that Hunter Biden sought to deduct a portion of Naomi's law school tuition from his tax burden.

Hunter Biden also spent $397,530 on clothes and personal accessories — including at "high-end" clothing stores, such as Rag & Bone — and $237,496 on "Health, Beauty, Pharmacy," according to the indictment. The indictment states that he paid the healthcare and health insurance expenses of three women with whom he had sexual relationships, though it does not specify whether these are included in the "Health, Beauty, Pharmacy" expenditures or "Insurance" expenditures, with the latter amounting to $203,815 over four years.

The indictment alleges that Hunter Biden used a business line of credit to pay at least $27,316 to an unspecified pornography website, with subsequent payments from his business bank accounts. It also indicates that he spent money at strip clubs, one of which was "M Street Management" in Washington, D.C., and included a $1,500 payment to one exotic dancer via "Venmo," which he described on his tax returns as "artwork."

Hunter Biden also spent just $71,869 on rehabilitation services for his drug and alcohol addictions, according to the indictment.

Hunter Biden had previously pled guilty to misdemeanor charges of failure to pay income tax issued on Jul. 20, though his plea was withdrawn amid criticism of the deal's alleged leniency, and after a dispute between the parties on whether it would encompass future charges. He was separately indicted on federal firearm charges on Sept. 14, to which he pled not guilty.

Attorneys for Hunter Biden did not immediately respond to a request for comment.
