'GAY MAFIA' OPENLY CONTROLS NETFLIX

Watching Goyflix, getting goy results. Go figure!

How do you know someone that doesn't have a TV?

He will tell you ... that's me!

Torrent folks. Get a VPN outside 5/7/12 eyes nations.

Shill time! I use IVPN from Gibraltar (technically under UK, but not). I have never gotten a DMCA or whatever take down notice with them in close to two years. USA Golden Frog nailed me twice. IVPN is $100 / year though.

Gave up on Legion, which was already extremely gay. But every episode literally starts with a lecture on the world according to progressivism now.

I just wanted to see a dude explode other dudes' heads with his mind powers.

Sense 8: Such potential..... Such a disappointment. It had me right up until halfway of the pilot with the trans-lesbian sex scene when the wet, floppy strap on hit the floor, after that it was "nope". Shame cause up until that point I had enjoyed everything by both the Wachowski's and JMS.

Altered Carbon was pretty rad tho.

You do know that one of the watchowski's is a trans now? not that it changes anything but maybe it helps understand why sense 8 was gay/trans/lesbo heaven.

One of them? No, they are now both TRANS! The MIC must have fantastic mind control tech.

Homos having sex, 90-pound women beating up ten men in a row, inter-racial sex (almost always a black man and a white woman), and torture, torture, torture (Hollywood just loves the torture scene). It's Jew perversion and decadence. Jews did the same thing in Berlin in the 1930s.

Honestly, I can't watch this shit anymore.

It's always about oppressed women or minorities, who end up being stronger than everyone or some other bullshit. Constantly it's the evil white men that are at fault.

Gay sex scenes, Transsexuals, super-friendly non-whites etc. Can't say I was surprised when the main actor in the series I was watching "The Bridge" was jewish.

They even talked about gender-neutral schools in sweden. It's driving me insane. I know it's propaganda, but the problem is, there isn't even any good counter-propaganda to this. Not even something that shows national socialists as normal human beings. Or even nationalists. No, they're always stupid monsters everywhere, in every fucking show.

I don't get how people can actually believe this.

Season 1 of Game of Thrones... great drama. Last episode...blonde girl consumed by fire... baby dragons on her naked body! Fuck...this is going to be a great series.

Season 2 of Game of Thrones..... homos.

Never saw another episode. When the JEWS are driven out of Hollywood, we will finally get some good entertainment.

At least that homo stuff was in the books since the 90s.

Then again, it was all off screen....

    I've never watched Narcos but I gave up on Netflix and that Ozark show when they turned gay as fuck halfway through the first season. It was so shoehorned in and it made no sense. It was just like some executive at Netflix randomly decided that they needed more gay sex scenes in their shows. I don't get it at all.

Let's think about prefixes. A- anything is subtracting it from the word. What is the opposite of musing? Amusement. I have no qualms with television shows that are thought provoking and entertaining, but nobody can pretend that binging on Netflix is anything but a waste of time.
