SF's public transportation system is horribly broken. 4) Weather. The weather just all around sucks. It's either cold/foggy or warm with no breeze, and it can be both of those things in the same day, so forget about wearing shorts/sandals all day. 5) Lack of good public transportation. Getting around the city can be a complete nightmare.

Originally Answered: Is San Francisco horrible? Absolutely NOT. This is just a misinformation (fake news) reported by FAUX NEWS and their kind, because they do not like that it is, in general, a liberal, Democratic-voting city. It has its problems, but what big city doesn't?

it's expensive as hell out here, like seriously, even fast food is at least a dollar more here than on the other side of the bay, and you have to pay a lot for a shitty place to live, parking sucks because you have to pay for it a lot of places, then there's a whole bunch of uptight liberals, there's traffic, and there are a bunch of wierdos too.

It's time to leave San Francisco. It's time to leave Silicon Valley. The Bay Area totally sucks. Although San Francisco isn't technically in the Silicon Valley. Semantics. You live on the Peninsula. Close enough. You're drafting an open letter. You have to put something up on Medium. You have to let people know that you're fed up with this place.

Why does the San Francisco Bay Area suck tremendously? - Quora

quora.com/Why-does-the-San-Francisco-Bay-Area-suck-tremendously

In general the San Francisco Bay Area does not suck at all. The only reason people think it does is because there are a bunch of people who come here with no reason to be here outside of trying to strike it rich. For those of us who live here, those people suck. The Bay Area is a great place to live, to work, to raise a family.

If anything is going to give you a taste of the "real" San Francisco, it's going to Bay to Breakers. 7. It is legal to be naked in San Francisco. And yes, people exercise this right. You'll find naked people in the parks. Naked people casually doing their shopping in the Haight (yes, this has happened to me.

Why San Francisco Is Nearly The Most Crime-Ridden City In The US

hoover.org/research/why-san-francisco-nearly-most-crime-ridden-city-us

San Francisco's unacceptable crime track record is implicitly a choice that the city has made, which is all the more surprising when the city spends about $14,000 per San Franciscan per year on government services, about 40 percent higher than New York city's profligate budget. One important deficiency is too small of a police force.

How To Make Delicious Dark Chocolate San Francisco Candy Out Of Your Own Placenta

Easy homemade dark placenta chocolate

Ingredients

1/2 cup | 105 g coconut oil
4 tablespoons | 85 grams honey or more for taste
1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract
1/2 cup of your own Placenta
pinch of sea salt
1 cup | 118 g unprocessed 100% cocoa powder or cacao powder

In a small pot over a low heat: melt the coconut oil. Stir in the honey, vanilla (or your preferred flavourings) and salt. Remove the mixture from the heat. Add the cocoa powder and mix until it's dissolved into the chocolate mixture. Stir in your placenta. You should have a smooth, lump free chocolate sauce. Pour the chocolate into silicone moulds or a lined baking pan and transfer to the freezer for at least 30 minutes or in the fridge for at least an hour. Once they've hardened pop them out of the moulds and enjoy. You can also use cocoa butter in place of the coconut oil for a creamier chocolate. You can use maple syrup or agave for a vegan friendly chocolate. Use maple syrup for low FODMAP. If you're planning on using another extract like mint or almond use it in place of the vanilla. Store these in the fridge. While this treat primarily appeals to Democrats and French people, it truly can be enjoyed by all. Make sure to use room temperature honey.
