

DNC MEGA-DONOR Ditches Dems in Scathing I 'Bunch of dumb-ass political hacks'

2.3K
SHARES

Share

Tweet

Plus

Wow! This is huge! The Democrats and their leaders are obviously ticking off the big guys with big bucks...Was it something they said? DNC Chairman Tom Perez could be the culprit or was it Donna Brazile exposing the corruption in the DSNC? We're happy Morgan saw the light and ditched the DNC but he's still on board with "some Democratic candidates"...He needs to come on over to the RIGHT side!

TALLAHASSEE — John Morgan tossed a bomb Friday into the 2018 political landscape, saying in a post-Thanksgiving message he is leaving the Democratic Party, and that Democratic Sen. Bill Nelson should not run for re-election, but rather seek the governor's mansion so he can leave a "legacy."

"I can't muster enthusiasm for any of today's politicians," the prominent trial lawyer and Democratic fundraiser wrote on Twitter. "They are all the same. Both parties. I plan to register as an independent and when I vote, vote for the lesser of two evils."

Morgan said, while he would support some Democratic candidates he likes, he would not raise a dime for national groups like the Democratic National Committee.

Trending On 100PercentFedUp.Com