Shortly thereafter, many more dating apps came online. There's been plenty of hand-wringing and gnashing of teeth over how Tinder could reinvent dating: Maybe it would transform the dating scene ...

Everyone from online date sites tells me the following things happen on them all the time. My experience seems to confirm it too:

- Almost everyone on an internet date site is a fake profile, Russian bot, scammer or automated response algorithm until you meet them in person. You can't believe anything until you see it with your own eyes.
- Anybody you meet on the internet should share 50% of the first meeting costs because of the unusually high number of scammers and gold-diggers on the internet.
- All physical interaction requires a verbal "yes". A 'date' is a meeting to see if there is sexual chemistry.
- Anybody who uses a 'smartphone', on a date for phone calls or social media, is hyper-rude, privacy-violating and not aware of data hacking issues. Keep your phone in a wireless RFID blocking bag at the bar, coffee shop or restaurant on your first date.

- The bigger-the-dating-site/the more it's owner's abuse your privacy and data rights by selling your info to govt and marketing databases.
- All dating sites read and archive your texts, emails and activities and sell that data to political groups and marketing companies.
- Everybody that is on a dating site is dating multiple people at once. Do not be naive. If you want to be committed and monogomous with a person just tell them so outloud. If you do not both agree to that arrangement VERBALLY, it will never happen.
- Men and women always assume different things about the status of a relationship. Most dating issues are about what stage each other person thought the dating phase was in.
- If you have unprotected sex you will most likely have a pregnancy or get an STD. For each new partner you must get a blood and urine test for: HIV/AIDS, Herpes, Chlamydia, Gonorrhea, Syphilis, Mycoplasma Genitalium, Trichomoniasis, Human Papilloma Virus/HPV, Crabs/Pubic Lice, Scabies, Hepatitis/HBV, Chancroid, Bacterial Vaginosis/BV, Nongonococcal Urethritis (NGU), Molluscum Contagiosum, MRSA, and Lymphogranuloma Venereum. Take this list to any Quest Diagnostics Test Center or Public Health Center and ask for the "Full STD Palette Test" or just show them the list and ask for the test that covers those items. The test takes only a few minutes and provides a lifetime of health security.

So....Since the web is the only way to meet people in the modern world, there is no other option to find your unique match, but, persistence is always said to pay off.
