

THE DNC IS THE CIA, CANDIDATES REVEAL

NO WONDER THAT CIA-FUNDED GOOGLE, FACEBOOK, YOUTUBE AND TWITTER ARE SO ANTI-RIGHT.

NO WONDER THAT SO MANY CIA FOLKS WORK FOR TRUMP-HATING ELON MUSK.

NO WONDER THAT THE CIA EXECS AND THE DNC FINANCIERS OF SILICON VALLEY ALL OWN THE STOCK IN ELON MUSKS LITHIUM ION BATTERY MINING DEALS.

“No Precedent In US Political History”: “Extraordinary Number” Of Ex-CIA Operatives Are Running For Congress As Democrats

At no time in U.S. political history have more ex-CIA operatives sought the Democratic nomination for Congress, reports Patrick Martin of the World Socialist Web Site.

WSWS reports:

An extraordinary number of former intelligence and military operatives from the CIA, Pentagon, National Security Council and State Department are seeking nomination as Democratic candidates for Congress in the 2018 midterm elections. The potential influx of military-intelligence personnel into the legislature has no precedent in US political history.

If the Democrats capture a majority in the House of Representatives on November 6, as widely predicted, candidates drawn from the military-intelligence apparatus will comprise as many as half of the new Democratic members of Congress. They will hold the balance of power in the lower chamber of Congress. [...]

One quarter of all the Democratic challengers in competitive House districts have military-intelligence, State Department or NSC backgrounds. This is by far the largest subcategory of Democratic candidates. National security operatives (57) outnumber state and local government officials (45), lawyers (35), corporate executives, businessmen and wealthy individuals (30) and other professionals (19) among the candidates for Democratic congressional nominations.

Of the 102 primary elections to choose the Democratic nominees in these competitive districts, 44 involve candidates with a military-intelligence or State Department background, with 11 districts having two such candidates, and one district having three. In the majority of contests, the military-intelligence candidates seem likely to win the Democratic nomination, and, if the Democrats win in the general election, would enter Congress as new members of the House of Representatives.

Yet, where does this new development tie in with the Deep State's war on President Trump?

Kim Dotcom hits the nail squarely on the head.

"The Deep State no longer wants to rely on unreliable puppets. They want to run politics directly now," the internet entrepreneur tweeted in response to the report Saturday.

WikiLeaks' Julian Assange sees this new trend as something much larger — rather an unprecedented convergence of power.

“The merger between the CIA, the Democrats, Iraq war neocons, NBC, CNN, and the Washington (Amazon) Post is a baleful predictor for US democracy,” Assange tweeted Saturday.

Intelligence operatives failed to keep Trump out of the White House. Now, they will try to stop him by electing lawmakers to serve inside the government to thwart his agenda.

But Trump’s no fool.

As reported by The Intercept, the Trump administration is still considering proposals developed by Blackwater founder Erik Prince and a retired CIA officer in an effort to provide CIA Director Mike Pompeo and the White House with a global, private spy network that would go around the U.S.’s official SWAMP-INFESTED intelligence agencies.

Reportedly, the proposals would see an army of spies with no official cover in numerous countries that are “denied areas” for current American intelligence personnel – like North Korea and Iran. Included in the proposals is the consideration of creating a new global rendition unit with the goal of capturing terrorist suspects around the world. A propaganda campaign in the Middle East and Europe to combat Islamic extremism was considered in the proposals as well.
