So Called Silicon Valley PHILANTHROPISTS All Turn Out To Be Social Criminals

By Voaty McGoaty

If the opening paragraph of someone's Wikipedia page describes them as a "philanthropist", they are almost certainly a monster.

"Philanthropist" is Wikipedia-speak for an extremely rich person who likely acquired their wealth through immoral means and uses it for large-scale social engineering projects disguised as charity.

It means virtue signaler who uses their cash money to gain validation from a society that doesn't give two shits about them. The money is either Communist social engineering or (((Them))) hiding something.

They're the people that suck up to, & ingratiate themselves because they're looking for opportunities to screw someone around. They're like that as kids too.

Don't forget, after most of their "work" is completed, they plaster their name all over whatever it is and still have the gall to call it "charity."

"Social Entrepreneur" is code for "asshole".

Yep. ,you are correct , it's newspeak for parasitic shill ie:

What do you do for work?. https://invideo.us/pQJ9GUVxPl8

"Power corrupts, absolute power corrupts absolutely; great men are, almost always, bad men."

Do not ever, for even one second, believe that John Doerr, Vinod Khosla, Larry Page, Mark Zuckerberg, Steve Westly, Elon Musk, Tim Draper, Steve Jurvetson or their bros are anything but criminal scum carefully hiding behind an army of criminally corrupt CPA's and dirty mob lawyers!
