The Advantages of Facebook over Running Your Own Personal Website = ZERO. Disadvantages of Facebook = Thousands

By Krebs After-Look

Not only do you not need Facebook for anything at all but Facebook is actually harming you in hundreds of ways that you cannot even see.

Facebook provides you with nothing you can't get by running your own free website.

Facebook does, though, provide you with: Political disinformation; privacy abuse; cyber-bullying; distribution of your psychological profile to government spies, marketing companies and political groups; Debbie Wasserman-approved fake news; ads; spybot exposure; fake user swarm-bots; character assassination; SJW extremism; irremovable comments you wish you never said; sextortion; and hundreds of other awful things that will ruin your life.
